The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord January 8th

The Baptism of the Lord is celebrated on the Sunday after Solemnity of the Epiphany, with which it is closely associated. We usually associate the Epiphany only with the coming of the Wise Men to Bethlehem. But the Epiphany originally celebrated more than that. It is one of the oldest feasts in the Church, older than Christmas. As it was originally observed in the Eastern Church, it celebrated many different epiphanies, or manifestations, of Christ to the world, including His Nativity. At His Birth, Christ was manifested as our Savior. The Angels said to the shepherds, "To you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord." (Lk 2:11) At His Baptism, He was manifested as God's Son by the Voice from heaven, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." (Mt 3:17) And at the Wedding at Cana, where He performed His first miracle, He manifested His power. Add to these the coming of the Wise Men, when Christ was manifested as our King to the Gentiles, and we have a whole series of epiphanies, all showing Christ in different ways, all celebrated originally in the one Feast of the Epiphany.

But it wasn't long before the Birth of Christ, being primary, was given a feast of its own. It was then, at least in the West, that the focus of Epiphany shifted to the coming of the Wise Men. And the other manifestations were celebrated later in the Season of Epiphany. On the Sunday after Epiphany, we remember the next manifestation of our Lord after the coming of the Wise Men. After thirty years of quiet obscurity, in a small town in Galilee, He again showed Himself publicly. He came to John, at the River Jordan and was publicly baptized by him. The Baptism of Christ is not explained in Scripture. We know it is connected in some way with our own baptism, because John told the multitude, "I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." (Mk 1:8) But if Christ Himself would baptize, with a baptism far greater than John's, why did He have to be baptized by John at all? John's baptism was a sign of repentance, a symbolic act by which the person baptized renounced his sins. But John knew Jesus had no sins to renounce or repent of. And so he said, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" (Mt 3:14) But Christ insisted. He said, "Thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness." (Mt 3:15) And so the question of why Christ had to be baptized can be put in these terms. How did Christ's being baptized fulfil all righteousness?

Baptism didn't begin with John the Baptist. It was originally a Jewish rite, which symbolized a washing from unrighteousness through the renunciation of sin. It was used until John's day for the cleansing of Gentiles who were converting to Judaism. John's baptism was revolutionary, in that he offered it to Jews -- meaning that they, no less than the Gentiles, needed to be cleansed of their sins. They were no better than the Gentiles in conforming their lives to the will of God. And this was a preparation for the teaching of Christ, that all mankind, Jew and Gentile alike, needs to come to Him for cleansing.

In light of all this, why was it necessary for Christ Himself to undergo a rite that symbolized repentance from sin? Christ renounced not His own sins, but the sins of mankind. As John himself said, Jesus is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world. Our sins are taken away when God forgives us for them. And one condition for God to forgive us our sins is that we atone for them, or pay for them. Christ atoned for our sins by His death on the Cross. But there is another condition for our sins to be forgiven. We have to repent of them.

In order to be forgiven for our sins, we have not only to atone for our sins, but repent of them, and we can't do either except through our Savior. Just as our Lord, though Himself sinless, would atone for our sins on Calvary, so He, even though sinless, repented of our sins in the Jordan River. In both cases, He acted not on His own behalf, but on behalf of all mankind. He represented us before God, at the beginning of His ministry, in His Baptism, just as He would represent us before God at the end of His ministry in His Crucifixion. In our place, He repented of our sins, just as in our place, He atoned for them.

Stewardship Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

I come to You in thanksgiving knowing that all that I am and all that I have are gifts from You. Teach me to be generous with these gifts that You have given to me.

I know that You want me to accept these gifts, cultivate them, and return them with increase, and that I may do that only through You. Help me to be Your faithful, evangelizing steward.

Keep me mindful that, as Your disciple, I am called through the Holy Spirit to be an instrument of dramatic missionary growth, radically faithful to participation in the Sunday Mass, deeply devoted to the presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and courageous in living the truths of our Faith and sharing the "Good News" with the world.

Make us One Family in Mission so that, through our time and talent, we may ignite our Church with the joy of the Gospel. Amen.

This year, St. Christopher's Parish Catholic Ministries goal is $117,400, of which $71,360 (61%) has been pledged and $68,582 collected. That leaves us with a shortfall of $46,040.

Many thanks to the 180 families whose pledges have carried us this far. If you still need to pledge, we earnestly urge you to complete a form and join this collective effort. Please remember that YOUR participation is paramount to this endeavor! We have over 3,000 registered families. If we all chip in, imagine the difference we'll make in the work of the Catholic Church here on Long Island!

BEWARE GIFT CARD SCAM

If you receive an email or text message from Fr. Johnny, or any other staff member of St. Christopher's Church requesting a purchase of gift cards or donations, delete it immediately, block the sender's phone number or email address and notify the rectory office as soon as possible. This is a common scam and is not from St. Christopher's. Please do not reply to the message nor purchase any gift cards prior to calling the office.

HELP US TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Every year through the support and commitment of individuals and organizations, we are able to serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island community.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal enables our Church to continue to form our youth and adults in the faith, promote the dignity of life, provide quality education to our young people, feed the hungry, and foster vocations to the priesthood.

Your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps our Parish Outreach and Catholic Charities Programs serve people in our community by providing food, clothing, shelter, counseling and care. And most importantly, it lets those we serve know that God loves them and is with them during the difficult times in their lives.

Your generosity helps to make all of this, and so much more, possible!

"Nothing wounds the heart more deeply than the loss of a loved one."

We are proud to serve the members of our parish.
When the funeral is over, you will find we have just begun to care.

We can provide, at no additional cost:

- Tribute DVD's
- Professional aftercare
- Grief literature available to lend
