"Love is patient, love is kind ... Love never fails" 1 Cor. 4a, 8a

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

In a few days we will begin the Season of Lent - a journey, calling us to change and conversion. Lent is a very important time in the life of the Church and every Christian, to examine our journey of being disciples of Jesus. I would like to take time this week to reflect on the symbol of ashes, that we use on the very first day of lent - Ash Wednesday.

At some point throughout Ash Wednesday, many of us will experience the symbolic gesture of receiving the imposition of ashes on our foreheads; in doing so, we will acknowledge our human frailty, our finiteness, and our sinfulness. The words we hear at the imposition of ashes are intended to confront our pride and ego and put us in touch with the human condition we all share. Following the example of the Ninevites, who did penance in sackcloth and ashes, our foreheads are marked with ashes to humble our hearts and remind us that while here on this earth, our lives slowly pass away.

The ashes are an important symbol of our penitence as we enter the season of Lent. These ashes are made from the dried palms of the previous year's Palm Sunday. But, like so many symbols, the importance is not the ashes itself, but remembering what it is that it represents. Ashes, in the Bible, are used to signify mourning or repentance. When we take part in the imposition of ashes each year, we remember Christ's sacrifice and repent of our sin. What is important is the condition of our hearts, not the symbols we use to represent them.

Ashes also symbolize grief. In this case, it is grief that we have sinned and caused division from God. As ashes are administered all are invited to accept the ashes as a visible symbol of penance. At times we could reduce Ash Wednesday to a church service in which we receive the ashes before getting back to whatever comes next. However, the scripture readings for this day raise essential questions for thought and reflection. These questions help us shape and sustain our Lenten journey so that it may truly be life-changing. As we ponder these passages, we might ask ourselves, "How can I be reconciled and return to the Lord?" We return to the lord using the means of prayer, fasting, and deeds of loving service.

Ash Wednesday comes from the ancient Jewish tradition of penance and fasting. The practice includes the imposing of ashes on the head. The ashes symbolize the dust from which God made us. As the priest applies the ashes to a person's forehead, he speaks the words: "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." Alternatively, the priest may speak the words, "Repent and believe in the Gospel."

The distribution of ashes comes from a ceremony of ages past. Christians who had committed grave faults performed public penance. On Ash Wednesday, the Bishop blessed them, and sprinkled over them ashes. Then, while the faithful recited the Seven Penitential Psalms, the penitents were put out of the church because of their sins — just as Adam and Eve were turned out of Paradise because of their disobedience. The penitents did not enter the church again until Holy Thursday after having won reconciliation by the toil of forty days' penance and sacramental absolution. Later, all Christians, whether public or secret penitents, came to receive ashes out of devotion. In earlier times, the distribution of ashes was followed by a penitential procession.

While the ashes symbolize penance and contrition, they are also a reminder that God is gracious and merciful to those who call on Him with repentant hearts. His Divine mercy is of utmost importance during the season of Lent, and the Church calls on us to seek that mercy during the entire Lenten season with reflection, prayer and penance.

Brothers and Sisters, as we are about to enter into this sacred time of the liturgical year, LENT - wilderness time, may we recognize a sense of anticipation about how God will meet us in the space we are creating for him. A blessed preparation and God bless you all.

Fr. Johnny

Liturgy

Feast day of Saint Scholastica February 10th

On Feb. 10, the Catholic Church remembers St. Scholastica, a nun who was the twin sister of St. Benedict, the "father of monasticism" in Western Europe. The siblings were born around 480 to a Roman noble family in Nursia, Italy. Scholastica seems to have devoted herself to God from her earliest youth, as the account of Benedict's life by Pope Gregory the Great mentions that his sister was "dedicated from her infancy to Our Lord." The twins' mother died at their birth. When Benedict was old enough he left home to study in Rome leaving Scholastica with her father to tend the Nursian estate. In time, Benedict left his studies to live first as a hermit, and then as the head of a community of monks in Italy. When Scholastica learned of her brother's total dedication to the Lord, she was determined to follow his example. It is not certain that she became a nun immediately, but it is generally supposed that she lived for some time in a community of pious virgins. Some biographers believe she eventually founded a monastery of nuns there. The brother and sister communities were about five miles apart. St. Benedict seems to have directed his sister and her nuns, most likely in the practice of the same rule by which his own monks lived. Unlike her brother, St. Scholastica was never the subject of a formal biography. As such, little is known of her life apart from her commitment to religious life which paralleled that of her brother. Pope Gregory wrote that Scholastica used to come once a year to visit Benedict, at a house situated halfway between the two communities. St. Benedict's biographer recounted a story which is frequently told about the last such visit between the siblings. They passed the time as usual in prayer and pious conversation -- after which Scholastica begged her brother to remain for the night, but he refused. She then joined her hands together, laid them on the table and bowed her head upon them in supplication to God. When she lifted her head from the table, immediately there arose such a storm that neither Benedict nor his fellow monks could leave. "Seeing that he could not return to his abbey because of such thunder and lightning and great abundance of rain," Pope Gregory wrote, "the man of God became sad and began to complain to his sister, saying, 'God forgive you, what have you done?'" "I wanted you to stay, and you wouldn't listen," she answered. "I have asked our good Lord, and He graciously granted my request, so if you can still depart, in God's name return to your monastery, and leave me here alone." St. Benedict had no choice but to stay and speak to his sister all night long about spiritual matters -- including the kingdom of heaven for which she would soon depart. Three days later in the year 543, in a vision Benedict saw the soul of his sister, departed from her body and in the likeness of a dove, ascend into heaven. He rejoiced with hymns and praise, giving thanks to God. His monks brought her body to his monastery and buried it in the grave that he had provided for himself. St. Benedict followed her soon after, and was buried in the same grave with his sister.

Stewardship Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

I come to You in thanksgiving knowing that all that I am and all that I have are gifts from You. Teach me to be generous with these gifts that You have given to me.

I know that You want me to accept these gifts, cultivate them, and return them with increase, and that I may do that only through You. Help me to be Your faithful, evangelizing steward.

Keep me mindful that, as Your disciple, I am called through the Holy Spirit to be an instrument of dramatic missionary growth, radically faithful to participation in the Sunday Mass, deeply devoted to the presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and courageous in living the truths of our Faith and sharing the "Good News" with the world.

Make us One Family in Mission so that, through our time and talent, we may ignite our Church with the joy of the Gospel. Amen.

Every year through the support and commitment of individuals and organizations, we are able to serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island community.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal enables our Church to continue to form our youth and adults in the faith, promote the dignity of life, provide quality education to our young people, feed the hungry, and foster vocations to the priesthood.

Your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps our Parish Outreach and Catholic Charities Programs serve people in our community by providing food, clothing, shelter, counseling and care. And most importantly, it lets those we serve know that God loves them and is with them during the difficult times in their lives.

Your generosity helps to make all of this, and so much more, possible!
