Pastor's Page

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

As we begin a new year, it is a time of reflection and renewal, an opportunity to set intentions for how we can grow in our faith and continue to live out our calling as stewards of God's blessings. The concept of stewardship is deeply ingrained in our Catholic faith, reminding us that all we have comes from God and should be used in a way that glorifies Him.

The beginning of a new year is often marked by resolutions —commitments to change, to improve, to grow. This year, I invite you to consider making stewardship a central theme in your resolutions. To live stewardship as a way of life, we must embrace it with a heart open to God's grace, and with practical, intentional actions.

Start with a heart full of gratitude, each day, thank God for the gifts you have received — your family, your health, your talents, and your resources. When we recognize that all we have is a gift from God, it becomes easier to share those gifts with others.

- Make prayer an integral part of your life. Seek God's guidance in your stewardship journey. Commit more time to daily prayer, including praying with your spouse, your children, and before meals. Pray for wisdom in using your time, talent, and treasure to further God's kingdom and help those in need.
- Identify your unique talents and how you can use them to serve others. Whether it's sharing your skills in music, teaching, organization, or any other area, offering your talents for the benefit of your parish and community is a meaningful form of stewardship.
- Deepen your understanding of stewardship and its role in your life. Read the Scriptures, study Catholic teachings on stewardship, and engage in discussions with fellow parishioners. This will help you grow in your understanding of this calling. Build strong relationships within your parish community. In unity, we can accomplish more. Working together as a community of stewards, we can make a significant impact on the world around us.

Remember that stewardship is not just a one-time commitment; it is a way of life. It's about consistent, intentional choices that reflect your love for God and your neighbors. By embracing stewardship in the year ahead, you will find fulfillment, purpose, and a deepened connection to your faith. Let us embark on this New Year with hearts filled with gratitude, dedication, and the desire to be faithful stewards of God's blessings. May our collective efforts bear witness to God's love and grace in our lives everywhere we go, and with all we encounter.

VACATION: As I write this letter, I received approval for a visit visa to India. For me this is exciting news, as it has been a long time since I last visited my cousins/family in Goa. So, I will be away for three weeks during the month of January. Please keep me in prayer, and I will pray for you and your families as I celebrate Mass at the shrine of St. Francis Xavier, in Goa.

May God bless you abundantly in this coming year, and may you find joy and peace in living stewardship as a way of life.

Fr. Johnny Mendonca

Liturgy

The Baptism of the Lord

Jesus begins His ministry through an act of deep solidarity with the fallen human race. John the Baptist had been preaching in the desert and offering a baptism of repentance. John's baptism was not the same as our baptism today. Instead, it was only a sign of one's willingness to turn away from sin and turn toward God. Jesus, of course, had nothing to repent of. He was sinless in every way. But that didn't stop Him from freely choosing to receive the baptism of repentance. Why would He do that?

Simply put, Jesus chose to unite Himself with fallen humanity, taking upon Himself our own sins and suffering their consequences. He humbly allowed Himself to be identified as a sinner in need of repentance. This was done out of love for us and out of His longing to become one with us so that we could become one with Him.

By bowing His sacred head to receive the baptism of repentance, Jesus united Himself and His divinity to everyone who had already chosen to repent. And He gave power to every forthcoming act of repentance others would make, even until today. When we repent today, we meet Jesus in that same water of repentance.

It was not only the Eternal Son Who was present at that baptism of repentance, but the Father and the Holy Spirit as well. The Spirit descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove, and the Father's Voice spoke to acknowledge His oneness with His Son. Therefore, every time we make a humble act of repentance, such as when we combine the crucifixion, the Trinity, and holy water upon entering a church and blessing ourselves, we not only meet our Lord but also receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and share more fully in our adoption as sons and daughters of the Father in Heaven.

Stewardship Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

I come to You in thanksgiving knowing that all that I am and all that I have are gifts from You. Teach me to be generous with these gifts that You have given to me.

I know that You want me to accept these gifts, cultivate them, and return them with increase, and that I may do that only through You. Help me to be Your faithful, evangelizing steward.

Keep me mindful that, as Your disciple, I am called through the Holy Spirit to be an instrument of dramatic missionary growth, radically faithful to participation in the Sunday Mass, deeply devoted to the presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and courageous in living the truths of our Faith and sharing the "Good News" with the world.

Make us One Family in Mission so that, through our time and talent, we may ignite our Church with the joy of the Gospel. Amen.

HELP US TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Every year through the support and commitment of individuals and organizations, we are able to serve more than 600,000 people in our Long Island community.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal enables our Church to continue to form our youth and adults in the faith, promote the dignity of life, provide quality education to our young people, feed the hungry, and foster vocations to the priesthood.

Your support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal helps our Parish Outreach and Catholic Charities Programs serve people in our community by providing food, clothing, shelter, counseling and care. And most importantly, it lets those we serve know that God loves them and is with them during the difficult times in their lives.

Your generosity helps to make all of this, and so much more, possible!

Thank you for your support.
