Message from Fr. Johnny

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Much before Thanksgiving, stores and radio stations were already playing Christmas music, decorations were up and Christmas merchandise had arrived and were being promoted with gusto; Because of all this, some people, get so weary of the season, that they are tempted to take down their Christmas decorations, the day after Dec. 25. Between the commercialism and the busyness of the season, it's easy to forget the spiritual importance of Advent, a time of preparation leading up to the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ and a redirection of our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming.

The goal is balancing the sacred part of Advent with the many chores in getting ready to spend time with family and friends. Making time for quiet reflection and prayer, can be a boost physically, emotionally and spiritually, for those worn down by the Christmas preparations.

There is always that tension between our culture and Advent; advent says let's wait before we celebrate Christmas until the 25th, and the culture says, let's do it right now. Advent teaches us to wait with hope. Advent is a time when the Church invites us to 'to search for God in our lives', 'to long for God', to desire for God'. It is a time to be renewed in the assurance that God is sending His Son and fulfilling His promise that the Son is going to be everything we hoped for and desired.

Blessed John Henry Newman said, "Christians are people who are called to wait for their Savior." Advent is a time to expand our hearts to embrace the fullness of that promise of our Savior, in Waiting.

A prayer from Mass, before the start of Advent is a preview of the season: "Help us to drink of His truth and expand our hearts with the joy of His promises so that we may serve You in faith and love." The Church stresses the penitential and preparatory nature of Advent with priests wearing purple vestments, the Gloria omitted during Mass and more. On the third Sunday of Advent, known as Gaudete Sunday, priests can wear rose-colored vestments, a reminder that Advent is half over.

Some suggestions for continuing our search for God in our lives.

• Focus on the daily readings of Mass. A list of the readings is included in our bulletins. Consider the "Lexio Divina," practice of reading, meditation and prayer usually centered on a short portion of Scripture.

• Have a small prayer service centered around a family Advent wreath. Lighting the Advent candles represents the promise of the coming of Jesus, the light of the world.

• Set aside sometime for the Sacrament of Penance, a perfect way to prepare for Christ's coming.

• Take part in a cultural tradition such as Las Posadas, popular in Spanish-speaking areas, a re-enactment of Mary's and Joseph's journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem as they search for and are denied lodging.

• Pray the Joyful Mysteries as a preparation and reminder of the Incarnation of Christ; consider inviting neighbors to pray the Rosary and make it a multi-family gathering.

• Find ways to reach out to people in need; share through the outreach – the Angels, giving here at the Parish –to help needy families.

May we spend our days of Advent in Waiting with Hope, reaching out to those in need, and above all encountering Christ in all that we do.

Let us all cry out Maranatha, Come Lord Jesus! Blessed Advent

Fr. Johnny

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
