Liturgy

Ordinary Time

Ordinary Time, the longest season of the Church year, fills the weeks that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ (Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the General Roman Calendar, 43). It's the no-particular-reason season. Christmas Time honors the birth of Christ. Easter Time rejoices in the Resurrection. Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

The number of the weeks of Ordinary Time replaces the old counting of weeks "after Epiphany" and "after Pentecost." The old calendar suggested that Pentecost ran for six months. The new calen dar gives Pentecost a day. Then we return to Ordinary Time.

At first glance, the principles of Ordinary Time seem basic enough. Start counting the weeks after Christmas Time. Break for Lent and Easter. Resume after Pentecost and keep counting until Advent. Basically, that's how it works. But we have a few quirks.

For example, there is no "First Sunday in Ordinary Time"; however, there is a first week. Usually Christmas Time ends on a Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. The lectionary also calls it the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, but it is part of Christmas Time. (Some years the Baptism of the Lord falls on a Monday, but that's another story.) Ordinary Time gets underway on a weekday. When the next Sunday rolls around, we start week two.

On the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we see the last of Ordinary Time until after Pentecost. Even then, it emerges only on weekdays. Trinity Sunday always follows Pentecost Sunday, and the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord comes the next Sunday in the United States. (In countries where this solemnity is a holyday, it falls on a Thursday.) Therefore, when the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time return in summer, we start out a little higher than where we left off.

Sometimes we skip one or two entire weeks of Ordinary Time during the Easter break. We want to close the Sundays of the year with Christ the King, one week before Advent. Christ the King always falls on the Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. So, we determine the week number after Pentecost not based on where we left off before Lent, but by counting backwards from Christ the King. One or two weeks may disappear, but Ordinary Time still serves the complete mystery of Christ.

World Youth Day Recap

The pilgrims landed in Lisbon very early on Friday morning and then made the one and a half hour drive to Fatima. They explored the town of Fatima during the day and then headed for the Shrine of our Lady of Fatima. They were able to visit and pray at the tombs of Lucia, Francesco, and Jacinta the three children who Our Lady appeared to in 1917.

Our pastor, Father Johnny was given access to celebrate a private mass for the pilgrims at the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Nazare. This beautiful Marion shrine dates back to the 14th century.

While on pilgrimage, the children gathered daily for Morning prayer, Mass and evening Rosary. On Saturday (July 30th), they spent the day in Fatima. There, they walked and prayed the Stations of Cross via the Way of the Cross. This walk follows the path that Jacinta, Lucia and Francisco all followed while tending to their sheep. Also on this path are the sites of the Angel of Peace and of the 4th apparition of Our Lady to the children on August 19, 1917. Afterwards, they visited the homes of the Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco.

Monday they spent the morning in Fatima at the Shrine and then started the journey to Lisbon. They stopped in Santarem; a town known as the location of the Eucharistic Miracle in 1266. They visited and prayed in the Church of the Holy Miracle and were privileged to spend some time praying in front of the Blessed Eucharist from that miracle!

Tuesday kicked off WYD!! The pilgrims met many other youth from around the world while walking the streets of Lisbon. They visited the church of St. Anthony and were privileged to have Fr. Johnny celebrate Mass at the Old Church of the Lady of Conception. Each evening the pilgrims walked around the city participating in outdoor events and meeting other pilgrims from all around the world. In the mornings they participated in Catechesis with thousands of pilgrims from all English speaking countries. They listened to Archbishop O'Malley (Aug 2) , Archbishop Fisher (Aug 3) and Bishop Barren (Aug 4) speak about importance of personal prayer, holy hours, adoration and mercy of Sacrament of Reconciliation. All of these are critical for us to be open to his invitation to grow closer God. At these morning events, Reconciliation was available. On Wednesday, there were over 100 priests including bishops and cardinals hearing confessions during Adoration. Each day concluded with a Mass that was concelebrated by hundreds of priests including Fr. Johnny .It was an amazing week filled with many blessings and a wonderful experiences!

On Aug 2, the pilgrims participated in United States Council of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) along with all pilgrims from across the USA. The highlight was keynote speech by Bishop Barron where he encouraged and challenged the kids to stand up and be proud Catholics in public spaces reminding them that the great Saints of the Church did just that and were not concerned about "playing it safe".

On Aug 5, many of the pilgrims participated in the pilgrim walk journeying 8 miles carrying our backpacks with tents and sleeping backs, etc... to Campo de Graca. The walk was so special because not only did they journey together but they met many pilgrims from around the world along the way sharing stories and encouragement as we all walked together peacefully. It was really a sight to see to see thousands of pilgrims walking on the highways all journeying to the same place. Being at the park with 1.6 million people is an experience they'll never forget!

They ended their journey in Lisbon on Sunday Aug 6 and were privileged to have Fr. Johnny celebrate Mass at the St. Louis of France Church. It was a wonderful way to end their world youth day experience!

Stewardship Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

I come to You in thanksgiving knowing that all that I am and all that I have are gifts from You. Teach me to be generous with these gifts that You have given to me.

I know that You want me to accept these gifts, cultivate them, and return them with increase, and that I may do that only through You. Help me to be Your faithful, evangelizing steward.

Keep me mindful that, as Your disciple, I am called through the Holy Spirit to be an instrument of dramatic missionary growth, radically faithful to participation in the Sunday Mass, deeply devoted to the presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and courageous in living the truths of our Faith and sharing the "Good News" with the world.

Make us One Family in Mission so that, through our time and talent, we may ignite our Church with the joy of the Gospel. Amen.

THANK YOU!

Thanks to the donations made by the generous parishioners, friends, family, and other contributors, I have been able to exceed my initial goal of a shirt per kid. I was able to purchase three shirts for each of the 123 kids (for a total of 369 shirts) as well as a pack of socks for each of them. Additionally, I was able to give Jericho Cares a donation with the remaining balance, which they plan to use for their Christmas drive.

Volunteers, comprised of my fellow scouts, family and friends, helped to pack the shirts as well as the socks on the 15th. The t-shirts and socks were distributed to the families this past Thursday (on the 17th).

I am so thankful for your support and kind words. Thank you for providing me with the means to accomplish this goal.

BEWARE GIFT CARD SCAM

We are aware that cyber thieves are now going after your wallet in addition to your passwords by adopting a simple tactic to trick you into handing over your money.

While not new, gift card scams are on the rise and can result in a victim losing hundreds or thousands of dollars. In the past few days, employees and parishioners of Saint Christopher's church have received an email of text that pretends to be from Fr. Johnny Mendonça and ask them to "Would you do me a favor" and buy gift cards and send them photos of the backs, for reasons that will supposedly be explained later. The scammer may even ask you to communicate with them via text message. In this email/text message scam, you are given a very plausible story as to why they need a gift card.

What you should do:

- Ask yourself, "Would Fr. Johnny really ask me to do this?
- Call Fr. Johnny to verify authenticity of the request.
- Do not reply to the email.
- Do not purchase any gift cards.
