Banns of Marriage

"Love is patient, love is kind ... Love never fails" 1 Cor . 4a, 8a

My dear Parishioners and Friends,

Hope you all are having a Blessed Advent,

Advent is not only about preparing for the celebration of Jesus' birth at Christmas, also for His Second Coming. We live between the first coming of Jesus when he was born at Bethlehem and his Second Coming at the end of time when he will come to judge the living and the dead. So, Advent, first and foremost, is a time to reflect on the Second Coming of Jesus. This season is concerned with the two comings of Jesus—our preparation for the celebration of Jesus' birth and our preparation for his Second Coming. At Mass, in two of the Eucharistic Acclamations, we profess our faith in Jesus' Second Coming:

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come in glory.

In the Creed which we profess every Sunday, we proclaim:

He will come again in glory, to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

At Mass, in Eucharistic Prayer III and Eucharistic Prayer IV just after the consecration, we profess our faith in Jesus' Second Coming;

Therefore, O Lord, as we celebrate the memorial of the saving Passion of your Son, his wondrous Resurrection and Ascension into heaven, and as we look forward to his second coming, we offer you in thanksgiving this holy and living sacrifice.
(Eucharistic Prayer III)

Therefore, O Lord, as we now celebrate the memorial of our redemption, we remember Christ's Deathand his descent to the realm of the dead, we proclaim his Resurrection and his Ascension to your right hand, and, as we await his coming in glory, we offer you his Body and Blood, the sacrifice acceptable to you which brings salvation to the whole world.
(Eucharistic Prayer IV)

During the early part of Advent (until December 16) the Church asks us to reflect on the Second Coming of Jesus, and not just to reflect on it but to prepare for it. The scripture readings of the first Sunday of Advent each year invite us to watch for the Second Coming of Jesus, and the readings of the Second Sunday of Advent invite us to prepare for the Second Coming of Jesus. That is why each year on the Second Sunday of Advent, we listen to a Gospel passage with John the Baptist asking us to prepare a way for the Lord. And on the third Sunday of Advent each year, we can detect some of the readings encouraging us to be patient for Jesus' Second Coming. Just as the ancient Jews longed for the coming of the Messiah, now we Christians yearn for His Second Coming - Advent. For this reason, some theologians call Advent "the season of already / not yet."

So, my dear brothers and sisters, let us ask ourselves; amid the high-pressure commercialism and rat race of all our preparations for Jesus' birthday- Christmas observance, is there a moment we take to talk with Jesus about all that we are doing? Are we preparing spiritually for His Coming? Let us continue during these days calling out to the Lord and inviting Him into our lives, and inviting Him in all that we do. "O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel; that mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel"

God bless you all, as you continue your journey of Advent.

Our Lady of Guadalupe December 12th

On December 9, 1531, barely 10 years after the Spanish conquest of the Aztecs, Our Lady appeared to a native peasant named Juan Diego while he was crossing Tepeyac Hill, outside what is today Mexico City. After telling Juan that she was the "mother of the true God," she told him that she wanted a church to be built there in her honor.

Juan Diego then approached the bishop of the new diocese of Mexico, Fray Juan de Zumárraga, asking for a church to be built. Without any proof, the bishop did not believe him. The Blessed Virgin then appeared again to Juan Diego, asking him to approach the bishop again. St. Juan obeyed her, and this time, the bishop requested a miraculous sign that would prove the story. When Our Lady appeared a third time to St. Juan on December 10, she said that she would provide a miracle the next day.

However, on December 11, Juan Diego's uncle became seriously ill, and he took care of him instead of meeting the Blessed Virgin. When his uncle, Juan Bernardino, appeared to be in his final hours on the early morning of December 12, St. Juan left the house to find a priest.

Believing that he could avoid seeing the Blessed Virgin, he took another route. However, not to be outsmarted, she still appeared to him.

The Blessed Virgin asked where he was going, and he explained that his uncle was ill. In response to Juan's lack of understanding of her great love for him, the Blessed Virgin asked him, "Am I not here, I who am your mother?" She then told him that his uncle had, in fact, recovered.

Then Our Lady asked Juan to collect some flowers from Tepeyac Hill, which is usually barren. He found Castilian roses, which are not native to Mexico, much less bloom in central Mexico in December.

The Blessed Mother arranged the roses in Juan Diego's tilma, before he proceeded to the bishop yet again. Upon opening his tilma before the bishop and other witnesses, the miraculous image of Our Lady of Guadalupe was revealed as the roses fell to the ground.

The following day, St. Juan returned to his uncle and found him completed recovered, as the Virgin had said. Juan Bernadino reported that Mary had appeared to him and requested to be known under the title of "Guadalupe."

Within seven years of this apparition, in which Our Lady manifested herself to the native peoples of Mexico as a sign of her maternal care, nine million accepted the Catholic faith. Remarkably, this amounts to an average of over 3000 people a day, every day for the next seven years. This is the number who were converted on Pentecost, as recorded in Acts 2:41.

Thank you to our donors for supporting our 2023 Ministry Appeal campaign!

This year, St. Christopher's Parish Catholic Ministries goal is $117,400, of which $71,020 (61%) has been pledged and $68,232 collected. That leaves us with a shortfall of $46,380.

Many thanks to the 179 families whose pledges have carried us this far. If you still need to pledge, we earnestly urge you to complete a form and join this collective effort. Please remember that YOUR participation is paramount to this endeavor! We have over 3,000 registered families. If we all chip in, imagine the difference we'll make in the work of the Catholic Church here on Long Island!

Stewardship Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

I come to You in thanksgiving knowing that all that I am and all that I have are gifts from You. Teach me to be generous with these gifts that You have given to me.

I know that You want me to accept these gifts, cultivate them, and return them with increase, and that I may do that only through You. Help me to be Your faithful, evangelizing steward.

Keep me mindful that, as Your disciple, I am called through the Holy Spirit to be an instrument of dramatic missionary growth, radically faithful to participation in the Sunday Mass, deeply devoted to the presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and courageous in living the truths of our Faith and sharing the "Good News" with the world.

Make us One Family in Mission so that, through our time and talent, we may ignite our Church with the joy of the Gospel. Amen.
