"Love is patient, love is kind ... Love never fails"
1 Cor . 4a, 8a

My dear Parishioners and Friends,

WELCOME TO HIS EMINENCE JOSEPH CARDINAL COUTTS;
This week I am glad to have the visit of my former Archbishop, Joseph Cardinal Coutts. It is an honor to have him in our midst spending some time here at St. Christopher's, while meeting people here in New York. Cardinal Coutts is a faithful Churchman and been a great missionary working five different dioceses of Pakistan.

On behalf of our community, we welcome His Eminence to the Church of St. Christopher's. It's a joy and pleasure to welcome you to our parish family. For over 100 years, St. Christopher's Catholic Church has been serving the people of Baldwin, while watching the area grow and change from generation to generation.

The Greeting as Mass Begins: More than a Casual Welcome:
Since we are talking about welcoming , I would like take this opportunity to talk about the opening greeting used by the celebrant.

When the priest says, "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you", he is using one of the earliest expressions of our faith in God as a Trinity of three persons, equal and distinct, yet one God. This greeting reminds us that we have a relationship with each of the divine persons. It is through the Son that we come to the Father in the power of the Holy Spirit. Furthermore, this greeting draws our attention to the Trinitarian dimension of the Liturgy. In Liturgy, all three persons of the Trinity are taking us up into their life as the one God and forming us here on earth as the Body of Christ.

The Mass is not an informal gathering of a group of people. It is a sacred moment before God. This is why the Missal gives the formal greeting that the priest is expected to use. This response "And with your spirit" places before us the reality of what we are doing. We are entering the Liturgy where we are open to the action of God in our lives and where our relationship to each other is deeply spiritual.

How profound, therefore, are the simplest greeting and response used by priest and people at Mass! When the greeting is given in the Liturgy, "The Lord be with you" and the response "And with your spirit" is made, both priest and people are expressing our faith that God is active among us in Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit.

We are the adopted sons and daughters of God. Through Baptism, God becomes our Father and we become His children. In the Liturgy, this relationship becomes more intense as we come to share more deeply God's own life. Thus, the greeting "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ" makes us aware of the mystery of God's own life made present to us in every Eucharist.

Brothers and Sisters, let us always be aware and grow deeper in our understanding of the Liturgical welcome - greeting and our response, that this sacred moment calls us to become His children.

God bless you all,

Fr. Johnny Mendonca

Sts. Peter and Paul

At the base of Mount Carmel, on the northwest coast of Israel, lies a Carmelite monastery named Stella Maris, Latin for "Star of the Sea." This monastery is built over a cave believed to have been where the prophet Elijah, inspired by God, challenged 450 prophets of Baal in a contest to the death. Elijah triumphed. Shortly after, Elijah prophesied the end of a three-year drought when, in the passage above, his servant reported to him that he saw a "cloud as small as a man's hand rising from the sea." That small cloud quickly transformed into a heavy rainfall over the parched earth. Later Carmelites interpreted Elijah's vision as a prefiguration of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She was seen as the small cloud rising from the sea, a true "Star of the Sea," and the rain that would emerge from her to end the three-year drought was perceived as the grace and mercy poured out by her Son, Jesus.

It is believed that following the time of Elijah, other hermits emulated Elijah and his successor, Elisha, by becoming hermits in the caves of Mount Carmel. Although some traditions hold that these holy hermits embraced Christ and lived on this sacred mountain from the time of Christ, written records only confirm their presence from the thirteenth century onwards. It was then, in 1209, that a group of hermits asked Bishop Albert, the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem, to provide them with a rule of life. Bishop Albert did so, and the Order of Brothers of The Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel, later known as the Carmelites, was formed. One of their first acts was to erect a chapel dedicated to Mary, Star of the Sea, Stella Maris. In 1226, their rule was approved by Pope Honorius.

Shortly after the order's founding on Mount Carmel, Muslim invaders conquered nearby territories, leading some of the hermits to flee from the Holy Land to other parts of Europe, including Aylesford, England. Though records are uncertain, it is believed that one of the first men to join the Carmelite hermits in England was a man named Simon Stock. The Carmelites were a new form of religious life, living as hermits rather than as a more ordered community like the Benedictines, Cistercians, and Augustinians. As a result, they found it challenging to gain wide acceptance. In 1247, Simon Stock is believed to have been elected Superior General of the Carmelites at the age of eighty-two. In an attempt to help the new order gain wider acceptance within the Church, Simon and his fellow hermits sought out the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. She responded and, in 1251, appeared to Simon while holding the Christ Child in one arm and a brown scapular in the other. She said to him, "Receive, my beloved son, this habit of thy order: this shall be to thee and to all Carmelites a privilege, that whosoever dies clothed in this shall never suffer eternal fire...It shall be a sign of salvation, a protection in danger, and a pledge of peace."

Stewardship Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

I come to You in thanksgiving knowing that all that I am and all that I have are gifts from You. Teach me to be generous with these gifts that You have given to me.

I know that You want me to accept these gifts, cultivate them, and return them with increase, and that I may do that only through You. Help me to be Your faithful, evangelizing steward.

Keep me mindful that, as Your disciple, I am called through the Holy Spirit to be an instrument of dramatic missionary growth, radically faithful to participation in the Sunday Mass, deeply devoted to the presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist, and courageous in living the truths of our Faith and sharing the "Good News" with the world.

Make us One Family in Mission so that, through our time and talent, we may ignite our Church with the joy of the Gospel. Amen.
